Tree Trimming Project to Close One Lane on U.S. Route 101 in Marin County

Novato – Caltrans will close one lane of southbound U.S. Route 101 in northern Marin County this Saturday and Sunday morning, September 24 and 25, in order to safely trim a row of elm trees adjacent to the highway.

One southbound lane will be closed between the hours of 5:30 am and 9:00 am on Saturday morning, and between the hours of 5:30 and 9:30 on Sunday morning. The lane will be closed between the Redwood Landfill Interchange and the entrance to Olompali State Park. The project will provide adequate clearance between the tree branches and vehicles, and will remove dead or diseased limbs.

Drivers are advised to expect some delays, and to allow for extra travel time.
